The program was able to create awareness among the people and made them think about the causes and consequences of cancer and the possible treatments for the disease. It also helped to remove the stigma and fear attached to cancer and gave an insight into the government schemes available for cancer patients. It reminded the people about the need for care and support of society to the affected family. The program guided them to recognize the early signs and symptoms of cancer, thus enabling them to seek treatment at an early stage. Improved health conditions will improve the quality of life of the people in these regions which will enhance their well-being.

"It is a dream to conduct such innovative actions at different parts of the country to spread the Cancer awareness among people," says Siby Poulse, the Program Associate, Caritas India. Cancer is a menace that eats away at humans. Despite the growing number of new cancer patients, many are still unaware of this danger. A majority of people are ignorant about the precautionary and preventive aspects of cancer. Hence the awareness was apt and able to reach out to many people. It is high time for an extensive awareness campaign to mitigate the loss created by cancer.

Sarada K.P Project :- SAFFP

Sarada is a 46 year old women. she has been receiving support from SAFFP for the past 4 years. She has five children, one of whom is differently abled. Her husband, Kuttan, was a daily wage labourer who worked seasonally and was their only source of income. The family also includes a grandmother who is partially blind and suffers from lifestyle diseases. Sarada used the first year's support from the SAFFP project to start a goat-rearing unit. She took good care of the goats and sold them for a good profit. The following year, Sarada purchased a sewing machine with which she stitches her neighbours' clothes and earns money, which she uses to educate her children and provide better care and treatment to her disabled son. She bought a television and other necessities, as well as a drinking water system. They now have a very good ginger cultivation as well as a small kitchen garden. The small business initiative acted as occupational therapy for her because she was in depression due to her son's condition. Now she is active in a self-help group and model for that tribal hamlet.

Francis Mundamakal Project :- Watershed

Francis Mundamakal is a 65 year old man living in Amarakuni village. His family consists of four members including wife and two daughters. He got biogas plant from NABARD's watershed project.
